

Data Privacy

Protecting the security and privacy of your personal data is important to UBIMET; therefore, we conduct our business in compliance with applicable laws on data privacy protection and data security.

Through our Websites, UBIMET will not collect any personal data about you (e.g. your name, address, telephone number or e-mail address), unless you voluntarily choose to provide UBIMET with it (e.g. by registration), respectively, provide your consent, or unless otherwise permitted by applicable laws and regulations for the protection of your personal data.

Purpose of Use

When you do provide us with personal data, UBIMET usually use it to respond to your inquiry, process your order or provide you access to specific information or offers. Also, to support our customer relationship with you:

- a) UBIMET may store and process personal data and share it with our worldwide affiliates to better understand your business needs and how we can improve our products and services; or
- b) UBIMET (or a third party on our behalf) may use personal data to contact you about an UBIMET offer in support of your business needs or to conduct online surveys to understand better our customers' needs.

If you choose not to have your personal data used to support UBIMET's customer relationship (especially direct marketing or market research), we will respect your choice. UBIMET does not sell or otherwise market your personal data to third parties, except to UBIMET affiliates.

Purpose Limitation

UBIMET will collect, use or disclose personal data supplied by you online only for the purposes disclosed to you, unless the disclosure:

- a) is a use of the personal data for any additional purpose that is directly related to the original purpose for which the personal data was collected;
- b) is necessary to prepare, negotiate and perform a contract with you;
- c) is required by law or the competent governmental or judicial authorities;
- d) is necessary to establish or preserve a legal claim or defense;
- e) is necessary to prevent fraud or other illegal activities.

Communications- and Utilization Data

Through your use of telecommunications services to access UBIMET Websites your communications data (e.g. Internet protocol address) or utilization data (e.g. information on the beginning, end and extent of each access, and information on the telecommunications services you accessed) are technically generated and could conceivably relate to personal data. To the extent that there is a compelling necessity, the collection, processing and use of your communications or utilization data will occur and will be performed in accordance with the applicable data privacy protection legal framework.

When you access UBIMET Websites, automatically (i.e., not by registration) non-personal data (e.g. type of Internet browser and operating system used, domain name of the Website from which you came, number of visits, average time spent on the site, pages viewed) may be collected. UBIMET may use this data and share it with its worldwide affiliates to monitor the attractiveness of our Websites and improve their performance or content.

"Cookies" – Information Stored Automatically on Your Computer

When you view one of UBIMET Websites, UBIMET may store some data on your computer in the form of a "cookie" to automatically recognize your device next time you visit. Cookies can help UBIMET in many ways, for example, by allowing UBIMET to tailor a Website to better match your interests or to store your password to save you having to re-enter it each time. If you do not wish to receive cookies, please configure your Internet browser to erase all cookies from your computer's hard drive, block all cookies or to receive a warning before a cookie is stored.

Use of Google Analytics

On our Website UBIMET uses Google Analytics in order to constantly improve the site and/or identify errors. For this purpose certain data is stored such as the Website visited, including its metadata, the Internet pages referring to UBIMET, the time at which the Website was called up and the browser used.

In order to exclude data aggregation and analysis by Google Analytics occasioned by your visit to this Website, please configure your Internet browser to erase all cookies from your computer's hard drive, block all cookies or to receive a warning before a cookie is stored.

If you change your device or internet browser, you must set the exclusion again.

Security

UBIMET intends to protect your personal information and to maintain its accuracy. UBIMET implements reasonable physical, administrative and technical safeguards to help us protect your personal information from unauthorized access, use, alteration, disclosure and deletion.
